Our Dependence On Iron.

In the attack—when it's time to "buck the line"—when our own boys must go "over-the-top," much dependence will be placed in the iron-tank. In the same way real men—men with a "punch"—have come to place their dependence on iron in a new form. Iron is easily assimilated within the body if taken in the form of tablets, called "Iron-tic." These "Iron-tic" Tablets were experimented with by Doctor Pierce and his assisting Physicians at the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N. Y., and are formed of iron and herbal extracts that are easily taken up by the blood. The blood corpuscles take on a rich color and the whole system feels the effect. Instead of feeling dull, drowsy, blue, "nerves on edge," tired before your work is half done, you feel rejuvenated. Fresh blood, rich in iron, courses thru your body. You have "pep," vim and vigor. The nerves are fed on rich, red blood, and men have the steady nerves, the wallup, the fighting force.

These "Iron-tic" tablets are to be had in sixty-cent vials at most drug stores. If you wish to test them send ten cents to the Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and get a trial package. Try them now.

JUDGE HIGGINS WILL PRACTICE IN NASHVILLE

Retiring Judge Started Life as Devil in Printing Office at $3 Per Week.

(Special to The News.)
Knoxville, June 19.—Judge Joseph C. Higgins, member of the court of civil appeals, who will retire from public life at the end of this term, September 1, will go to Nashville to practice law. He has served eight years on this bench. Before coming to this court, he served as circuit judge of the seventh district, which is composed of the counties of Lincoln, Moore, Coffee, Warren, DeKalb, Grundy, Van Buren, Hindsdale, and Rhea.

Judge Higgins has had a rather remarkable career. He left the farm when he was 15 years old and became a "printer's devil" in the office of the Fayetteville Dispatch at a salary of $3 a week.

"You must gather and write the news for the front page, and set type for the entire paper," his superior told him. Setting type was rather tedious in those days, so the editor anticipated that the boy would fill the page with reprint. He did not, however, but filled it with original composition, "Simpson's Defeat," a tale of the defeat of a candidate for constable, a most vivid and picturesque story of a country man's ambition to "wave the big stick" over the boys who came down from the hills on Saturday to get filled with "red liquor."

"This little story brought him considerable distinction in the county, and soon he became editor of the Fayetteville Sun, the destinies of which he guided until it guided him out of the business."

Judge Higgins began the study of law in his own private room. He studied it thoroughly from every viewpoint and also other subjects which are required to complete a polished judicial man.

So remarkable was his career as a lawyer that he had a case before the supreme court at the age of 21 years. "He was rather awkward," said a friend, "but he won the suit."

This gave him distinction again, and there was soon a demand for him to become judge of the circuit court of his district. He yielded and was elected by a safe majority.

He served his circuit with distinction. From this position he was elevated by the voters to the position of member of the court of civil appeals.

New Helmet of Steel Adopted by Swiss Army

Here's a pointer for the American war department in the making of steel helmets. This new helmet has been adopted by the Swiss army, which is prepared for any eventuality in the world war. It is said to be more durable than any yet devised by any of the warring nations, and its weight is only 6 1/4 pounds. Note how well it covers the entire head and yet leaves plenty of room for the eyes.

AVIATORS DEMOLISH WORK OF GERMANS

To Clear Entrance at Zeebrugge, Where Blockade Is Declared Complete.

(Associated Press.)
Amsterdam, June 19.—The entrance to the harbor of Zeebrugge is blocked, according to Lieut. George Coward and John Read, of the British royal air force, who landed in the province of Zeeland Monday and are to be interned at The Hague. In an interview published in the Telegraf, they say the Germans are working day and night to clear the passage, but each night British aviators demolish the Germans' progress.

The cement ships sunk in the harbor are still there, and the Germans are afraid to blow them up for fear they will also destroy the sluices. The lieutenants assert that no submarines can enter or leave Zeebrugge. The blockade of Ostend is not so complete, but the Germans are having great trouble there.

The motor of the seaplane carrying Coward and Read failed while they were bombing Zeebrugge. German aviators attacked their machine, but they managed to reach Holland and to escape capture by the Germans.

MORAL CLEAN-UP MORE SCIENTIFIC PROCEDURE

Than Reform Movement, Say Government Men of Work in Camp Cities.

(Associated Press.)
Mobile, Ala., June 19.—Dr. Albert J. Reade, representing the commission on training camp activities, surgeon-general's department, and Capt. John O. Rush, medical reserve corps, U. S. A., after inspecting the work recently done here in connection with the moral clean-up, stated that in few places visited had they found the work so excellently done. Dr. Reade stated that three states—California, Michigan and Oklahoma—are conducting campaigns similar to this, which he classed as a scientific rather than a reform movement.

SILK MERCHANT ARRESTED

In Paris—Claims to Be an American Citizen.

(Associated Press.)
Paris, June 19.—Jacob Julius Stern, a silk merchant, claiming to be an American citizen, was arrested yesterday on a charge of commerce with the enemy. He was born in Germany in 1852 and thirty years ago went to the United States where he founded the business firm of Stern & Stern with his brother Emil, who is now in the United States and his two sons are serving in the American army.

Stern's American naturalization was questioned by the French authorities in 1915, but he took the matter into the courts and obtained recognition of his American citizenship and the order of sequestration against his property was lifted. Mr. Stern is a very wealthy resident where he owns a fine home which was transformed into a military hospital at the beginning of the war. The prisoner was placed in the Sainte prison without bail.

The report states he was found in ambush near Hazle Green and when closely pursued by the officers he shot back at them and jumped into a creek, escaping with little clothing. The chase is exciting, but the negro has managed so far to escape being captured.

PROUD HER BOY WAS SOLDIER OF GREAT WAR

Young Mynatt Was a Poet as Well as One of Uncle Sam's Fighting Men.

(Special to The News.)
Knoxville, June 19.—"I am proud that my son was able to do his part like a man," says Mrs. J. S. Mynatt, mother of the first Sammy to unfurl Old Glory in France, Burley G. Mynatt, a Knoxvillean. Young Mynatt died of wounds received in action.

Young Sammy wrote a poem while at Port Royal, prior to going "over there," which reads:

"When you were but a rookie,
And felt so much alone,
Do you recall that hour,
When you wrote that letter home?

"Do you recall those visions,
That crept before your gaze,
Those memories of home life,
And the joys of home-town days?

"Did you think of those loved ones,
Of the day you left to roam,
Do you recall your anguish,
As you wrote that letter home?"

JOHN R. MOTT TELLS OF EXPANSION Y. M. C. A. WORK

In Conference With Wilson, International Secretary, Says 4,000 Workers Are Needed.

Washington, June 19.—John R. Mott, international secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, who has just returned from a trip to France, told President Wilson yesterday that while some of the organization's secretaries in France have been killed and others gassed during the recent fighting, the work of caring for the American troops in France is being expanded and the association is taking over work with the French and British troops. One-fourth of the 2,500 American Y. M. C. A. workers in France, the president was told, are now within range of the German guns.

The American association, Mr. Mott says, has been asked by the French government to establish huts for the French troops at 2,000 places as soon as possible. Work has been started on the rebuilding of eighty-nine British huts. Ninety-three French foyers, captured or destroyed by German shell fire, are to be replaced by the Americans.

In pointing out that by September it will be necessary to have 4,000 American workers, of whom about one-fifth should be women, for overseas duty, Dr. Mott declared: "Every community in this country that has sent Y. M. C. A. workers abroad may well be proud of the service they are rendering our boys and those of the allies."

"BLUE SUNDAY" PASSES QUEETLY IN HUNTSVILLE

(Special to The News.)
Huntsville, Ala., June 19.—The first blue Sunday in Huntsville passed off as nicely as Mayor Terry or any other citizen might expect. It appeared that the people provided on Saturday their Sunday needs and there was little use for any of the business houses to be open. The drug stores were not taken under the law in this instance, but it is believed they will fall in line, only opening their stores where sickness calls for it.

DECLINE ON BERLIN EXCHANGE RESULT RESIGNATION CABINET

(Associated Press.)
London, June 19.—The resignation of the Bulgarian cabinet caused a sharp decline on the Berlin and Frankfurt stock exchanges, says an Amsterdam dispatch to the Morning Post.

While the German newspapers declare that the resignation of the Radomirsky ministry will not affect the Bulgarian foreign policy, uneasiness is felt in Germany, as it is clear that strong differences exist in Bulgaria.
